

PAINTER TRIES TO MAKE LOVE TO WIDOW

Used Revolvers to Remove Husband from Path to Mrs. Gorchakoff's Affection.

The love of Emil Pettinate for Mrs. Morris Gorchakoff is so intense that he tried to make her a widow, using two revolvers in the attempt. Morris Gorchakoff is in Fordham Hospital. Emil is locked up on a charge of assault, and Mrs. Gorchakoff is in hysterics.

Emil is a house painter, and up to a week ago boarded with the Gorchakoffs at No. 91 Shell street, Williamsbridge. Mrs. Gorchakoff is a prepossessing woman, but she loves her husband and when Emil declared his affection she informed him that his number was 22. The house painter moved down to Harlem. He brooded until he reached the decision that the only way he could acquire Mrs. Gorchakoff was to kill her husband. He accumulated two revolvers, cartridges for the weapons, liquid ammunition for himself and went to Williamsbridge.

Gorchakoff was at home and answered Pettinate's knock at the door. Pettinate drew his revolvers and Gorchakoff started in the direction of Yonkers. He ran from Two Hundred and Fiftieth to Two Hundred and Twenty-fifth streets with Pettinate after him, firing occasionally. Nine shots were fired and one shattered Gorchakoff's right arm, but he kept on running until a policeman corralled Pettinate. A brother of the painter was in the Westchester Police Court today to give bail. Mrs. Gorchakoff fainted when she saw the bond about to be signed, and after her recovery begged that Pettinate be kept under restraint.

"If he gets out," she declared, "I'm afraid he will kill me, as he tried to kill my husband."

Magistrate Barlow raised the bail to $2,500, but the brother, who owns an $8,000 house, gave the case. Then the Magistrate exercised his right and refused the bond. This will hold the painter until the matter can be passed upon by the District Attorney.

FOUR YOUTHS HELD IN BAIL AS BURGLARS.

Believed to Be Members of a Gang Connected with Recent Robberies.

Four young men, each less than nineteen years old, were to-day arraigned before Magistrate Breen in the Tombs Court charged with burglary.

They were arrested a few days ago by Detectives O'Connor and Rooney coming out of the saloon of David Four, No. 197 West street. They gave their names as William Collins, of No. 84 Spring street; Michael Kenney, of No. 19 North Moore street; John Gleason, of No. 43 Greenwich street; and Joseph Rooney, of No. 349 Spring street.

They are supposed to be members of a gang who have been committing burglaries in the vicinity of Spruce and West streets. They were held in $1,500 bail each for Special Sessions.

The $15,000,000 Girl.

Who is she? Why has no fortune-hunter snapped her up? She is the charming heroine of Robert Barr's "A Rock in the Path," which begins in the Sunday World next Sunday.

Wanamaker Clothing

For Well-Dressed Young Men

The well-dressed young fellow these days is very particular. His clothes must fit him perfectly. They must be up-to-the-minute in style. The tailoring must be high-grade. And his pocket mustn't be too hard hit.

Every single one of those demands is carried out, here at Wanamaker's. Drop in some time today and we'll have big pleasure in showing you the largest, handsomest and most stylish assortment of Spring Clothing that you ever looked at.

In particular—Twenty-dollar Suits. The first thing you'll notice is their superb style—expert cutting makes that. Then the quiet, tasteful patterns will strike you. You'll wonder how twenty dollars can do it. Sack Suits at $20—Of neat, stylish worsteds, cassimeres and cheviots; half-lined. Broad shoulders and lapels; slightly shaped waists; 31 or 32 inches long.

Others, single-breasted, at $10 to $25. Double-breasted, at $10 to $20.

Men's fancy Sack Suits of neat and stylish mixed cheviots, worsteds, cassimeres; made and cut over the newest models. Some two-buttoned, while others are three-buttoned. Broad shoulders and lapels; 31 and 32 inches long. Single-breasted, at $15 to $35. Double-breasted, at $15 to $25.

Men's English Walking Suits, of neat worsteds, at $35. Men's Black and Blue Sack Suits, of thin, unfinished worsteds; single and double-breasted, at $15 to $30.

May Sale of Framed Pictures

Our picture Store has enlarged its quarters. When the Piano Store moved to the New Building, pictures fell heir to most of the broad space vacated. In anticipation of this good fortune our picture man has had his eyes open for special offerings to present during this month. A splendid collection of pictures has been assembled. All are very radically under-price—the large majority of groups range in price from $1 to $5, in which values are presented ranging from $2.25 to $12.50.

The occasion is one of the best we have presented in a long time. Housekeepers who have just moved into new homes will be glad of this opportunity to decorate the walls artistically at small cost.

Some suggestions of the various groups follow:

Etchings—a group of landscapes: gilt frames, with white matt or oak and silk frames, 22 x 22 in. At $1, worth $2.25 and $2.50.

Photogravures in landscape and figure subjects: plain and hand-colored; gilt frames, with gold-burnished ornaments and white matts, 22 x 26 inches. At $1.50, worth $2.50 and $3.

Etchings—a limited number of pleasing landscapes: brown wood frames, with hand-colored white matts, 22 x 26 inches. At $1.50, worth $3.

Fac-simile Reproductions of landscapes, Art's hands and marines; gilt frames. At $2, worth $3 and $3.50.

Etchings, in landscape and pastoral scenes; brown oak frames with white matts, 18 x 28 and 22 x 32 inches. At $2, worth $3.
